

Genetics, Normality and Democracy

– a problematic for the 21:st Century

Arranged by the research network Genetics and Democracy with support from the Nilsson-Ehle Lecture Fund at the Royal Physiographic Society in Lund and the Erik Philip-Sörensen Foundation

Seminar 1

April 28, 2009

Location: Department of Political Science, Lund University: Hall 366
(Conference Room, 3:rd floor)

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 15:15-16.15 | Nik Brown, York: The metrics of humanness in the UK transspecies embryo debateDr. Nik Brown will speak about his work on the recent embryo research legislation in the UK and the debate surrounding transspecies embryos. |
| 16.15-16:45 | Coffee   |
| 16:45-17:30 | Concluding discussion  |

Seminar 2

October 5, 2009

Location: Pufendorf institute (Biskopsgatan 3), Lund University

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 14:15-15:15 | Martina Cornel, Amsterdam: The promises of genomic screening: Building a governance infrastructure                     |
| 15:15-15:45 | Coffee   |
| 15:45-16:45 | Carla van El, Amsterdam: Debating genetic screening: Lessons from the history of genetic screening in the Netherlands. |
| 16.45-17.30 | Concluding discussion  |

Seminar 3

November 2, 2009

Location: Pufendorf institute (Biskopsgatan 3), Lund University

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 14:15-15:15 | Margaret Lock, Montreal: Dementia Entanglements in a PostGenomic Era |
| 15:15-15:45 | Coffee   |
| 15:45-16:30 | Concluding discussion  |

